

Ken Andres, Longtime Secretary-Rules Editor and Official, Has Passed Away

Ken Andres, who served as NCAA Men's and Women's Soccer Secretary-Rules Editor since 2011, passed away on June 24. Prior to his appointment as secretary-rules editor, Ken was a longtime referee and served in many leadership roles with NISOA. Ken was a recognized leader in the soccer world and will be remembered for his knowledge of the game, teaching abilities and the relationships he built. He has been inducted into many Halls of Fame, including the NISOA/National Soccer Hall of Fame, which further shows his passion and dedication to intercollegiate soccer. Ken's passing is a true loss for intercollegiate soccer and he will be deeply missed. For additional details, please visit the links below:
