

Frequently Asked Questions on Uniforms and Contest Delays Men's and Women's Soccer – 2017-18

(This document includes specific NCAA Soccer Rules references where applicable.)

1. What words, logos and symbols are allowed on the jersey?

Other than the uniform number, here are the only items allowed by rule on the jersey (Rule 4.1):

Words

- Player's name on the back
- School name or nickname on front or back
- Mascot name on front or back

Logos/Patches

- One manufacturer's or distributor's logo or trademark (contained within a four-side geometrical figure and does not exceed 2¼-square inches)
- One commemorative patch (contained within a four-side geometrical figure and does not exceed 2¼-square inches)

2. What size restrictions are there for these?

See above for logo and patch size restrictions.

3. Are any words other than the player's name allowed on the back?

The institution's name, nickname or mascot name is allowed on the back of the uniform.

4. May the jersey contain any other words, slogans, messaging, etc.?

No, the jersey is restricted to the items listed above. No other words are allowed on the jersey.

5. Are words allowed on wristbands and other attachments?

The rules do not specifically address wristbands or other attachments, however, items likely to cause injury must be removed. (Rule 4.5.1)

6. What about messaging for causes, organizations, etc.?

The rules do not specifically address words or symbols that reference charitable causes, political candidates or political issues, social media, religious or club affiliation, etc.

7. How does the unsportsmanlike acts rule apply?

Offenses for which an indirect free kick shall be awarded are: Unsporting behavior, including inappropriate language. (Rule 12.2.8)

Any player, coach, team representative or participant listed on the official roster shall be cautioned a maximum of one yellow card per game for committing any of the following offenses: Engaging in other acts of unsporting behavior, including taunting, excessive celebration, simulating a foul, exaggerating an injury, baiting, substituting illegally or ridiculing another player, bench personnel, officials or spectators. (Rule 12.4.5)

8. What are the rules about jersey colors for opposing teams?

It is the prerogative of the home team to select uniform colors. However, in the event of a conflict, it is the responsibility of the home team to wear jerseys and stockings in clear contrast to those worn by the visiting team. (Rule 4.2.1)

9. What are the rules about the contrast of jerseys and numbers?

Numerals at least 8 inches in height that are easily distinguishable from the predominant background color(s) and pattern shall be worn on the back of each player's (including goalkeeper's) jersey. Numerals at least 4 inches in height that are easily distinguishable from the predominant background color(s) and pattern shall be worn on the front of each player's (including goalkeeper's) jersey. Numerals are required on the front and back of the jersey, and no two teammates may wear the same number. (Rule 4.3)

10. What is the penalty for wearing a jersey whose numbers do not contrast?

Any player not conforming to Rules 4.1 through 4.5 shall not be permitted to play. Moreover, after being instructed to leave the field, provided he/she has not been substituted for, a player shall not re-enter the game without first reporting to the referee, who shall be satisfied that the player's uniform, shoes and equipment are in order.

11. What is the purpose of the rules regarding numbering and visibility?

The rules for contrasting numbers and visibility are intended to provide clearly visible numbers for the stakeholders: coaches, fans, media, television audience, etc. This means that the numbers should be clearly visible at a distance under a variety of weather and lighting conditions.

12. What is the rule regarding refusal to play?

When a scheduled game is terminated before it begins, it is recorded as "no contest." (Rule 7.4)

A suspended game is considered a temporary action (because of elements or other causes). If the conditions leading to a suspended game persist and the game is not resumed the same day, the game shall be considered "no contest" if it has not progressed to 70 minutes. (Rule 7.5)

13. Are there any playing rules that specify protocols for student-athletes and/or coaches during the national anthem?

No.
